

BEST PLACE TO BE A GLUTTONOUS GOURMAND: JILL'S AT THE ST. JULIEN

900 Walnut St., Boulder, 720.406.7399, jillsdining.com

Jill's brunch buffet is a spectacular sight. Tables and counters are covered with spreads of polenta and paella, salmon and salads; eggs, bacon, sausage, pretty croissants and a friendly man who will make you a waffle; nuts and cheeses and magnificent desserts. It's truly overwhelming. And it calls for a plan of action: Breakfast then lunch? All breakfast then dessert? Just dessert? What does one say no to when there are so many lovely things? Everything is good; some of it is great and occasionally it causes me to stop and say, "Oh my god." Tiered trays are filled with perfect, intricate dessert canapés. Pretty bowls of impeccably diced onions, celery and accoutrement accompany large bowls of fresh, pink shrimp and salmon. Take your time, sip your mimosa and refill your coffee.
