

CELEBRATE THE BOUNTY OF FARM-FRESH COLORADO FOOD WITH JILL'S HARVEST TEA AT THE ST JULEIN HOTEL AND SPA

Executive Chef Jason Rogers invites guests to delight in an elegant afternoon tea alongside Boulder's leading farmers

WHAT: The St Julien Hotel & Spa invites guests to celebrate the height of the local growing season with a special, one-day-only Jill's Harvest Tea on Saturday, September 29. Coinciding with the conclusion of the 2007 season at the Boulder Farmer's Market, this unique event celebrates food grown within a 100-mile radius of the hotel and highlights ingredients sourced from local vendors such as: Abbondanza Farms, Cure Organic Farm, Red Wagon Farm, and Hazel Dell Mushrooms—all of whom were personally invited to attend this one-of-a-kind event.

Guests can enjoy a selection of Tea Forte teas in the warm, tranquil atmosphere of the Honey Onxy Room at Jill's Restaurant while sampling harvest delights from Executive Chef Jason Rogers such as: sweet corn terrine paired with a delicate sandwich of turkey confit on house-made butternut squash brioche; a sandwich of slow-cooked tomatoes and ripe green beans paired with blackberries, thyme, and Colorado Camembert; and a menu of desserts crafted to feature the season's delightful crop of ripe fruits, and more.
